THE CHIMES

*Presented By The Senior Class
Berea College, Berea, Kentucky
1942*

Day by Day

The Chimes Ring...

... Constant, ever-watchful time-keepers. Big things and little—momentous and commonplace—are proclaimed to the conscious and the unconscious through the ringing of the Chimes ... breakfast ... dinner ... supper ... weddings ... victories ... chapel ... church ... classes—people of today looking to tomorrow's work ...

Berea College Collegiate dept. Senior class Chimes.

*... Tomorrow for us ... as soldiers ... steel workers ...
shipbuilders ... farmers ... school teachers ... the Chimes will ring on ... keeping before us a reminder of the warmth of Berea friendships ... the healthfulness of Berea activities.*

Believing that ...

... sports are a part of a wholesome college existence, that a well trained body and a feeling for clean sportsmanship contribute to the healthy mind...

We Dedicate To Coach Roger B. Clark

The Berea Players

With its two major public shows each year, its regular Tuesday night one-act plays for members, and its cooperation with other organizations on the campus in presenting plays and other programs, the Berea Players are one of the most active organizations on the campus—and the largest.

In the fall they gave a near-professional performance of the tragedy, Moor Born. In the spring they laughed at themselves with The Torchbearers, a satire on drama and dramatic art. In the winter the secondary division of the club gave three one-act plays for the public.

Behind the scenes are the skeletons the public never sees. The old Tabernacle contains costume rooms, make-up laboratories, carpentry shop, paint shop, and class room, where the dramatics machine of the college and secondary school lives and produces.

This year a small number of Foundation school students became members of the club.

On page 108 are pictures of Alpha Psi Omega, Tau Delta Tau, and the National Thespians, honor organizations within the Berea Players, toward which members of this organization may aspire.

Ag-Home Ec. Club

. . . started its year with an initiation of forty new members. After delivering serious lectures and singing songs, pledges accepted a place on a long rope, blindfolded, and allowed themselves to be led over fences, hedges, through cow pastures, up ladders and down into the pavilion, where they were served coffee and doughnuts. Candy pulls and pig roasts were among some of the other activities sponsored by this group of farmers.

Agricultural Union

. . . is proudest of its Ag Social, the biggest social event of the Autumn season. Every girl awaits with bated breath an invitation to this gay party where everyone is unconscious of everything.

Other events are the Junior-Senior Judging contest, the high school judging contest and the Freshmen-Sophomore Judging contest. All of these activities are designed to prepare the Ag major for taking his place in a farming community.

Women keep fit with tennis, archery, track and softball

Almost every girl is lured to one of the many tennis courts during the fall or spring by the love of good, clean action and the spirit of competition. Many of them take advantage of the gym classes to receive instructions in this popular game played by both men and women.

Archery is an old sport which is lots of fun once you get the knack of the thing and learn how not to hold your bow. These young ladies are doing well for their first class.

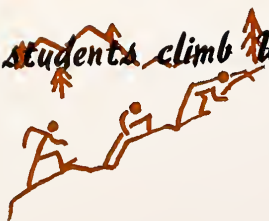

Track and softball are played exclusively in gym classes.

It is practice such as this that makes Berea's graduates valuable as teachers in rural as well as city schools. Practice teachers are trained in Berea's own departments and in grammar schools and high schools in various communities surrounding Berea.

. . . little knew what we were getting into when we undertook to publish the 1942 Berea College yearbook. But we found out. Little by little we learned by painful experience a lot of things we hope never to have to learn again. We thought, planned, drew, tore up, and planned again. We inspected other annuals; we talked with men experienced in college yearbook publishing; and all along we had our own ideas. We discussed, disagreed, and fought. We grinned, shook hands, and planned some more.

We used about 217 flash bulbs, 1679 sheets of typing paper, 463 sheets of copy paper, 1½ gallons of rubber cement, 47 big sheets of mounting board, 4 or 5 partially complete 168-page dummies, and more man hours of hard labor than the average college student spends in four years of classes.

We wore out two sets of bicycle tires rushing from the printers to the CHIMES office, to the photographer's, to the CHIMES office, to the printers; we demolished some 23 pairs of shoe soles walking while someone else had the bike. The voltage used in lighting the office while the rest of the world slept would be sufficient to keep the college amply illuminated from now till Home-coming. We missed classes, dropped courses just in the nick of time, cut chapels, yes, even missed meals, in order to make the 1942 CHIMES more than an artist's conception on high-grade newsprint. And . . .

Now it is done

Always a surprise team, the 1942 Mountaineers saw both the bottom and the top. After dropping six straight games, including the pre-season loss to a more experienced alumni quintet, the Big Blue team marched into the University of Louisville gym and carried away a 37-33 victory. The first conference loss for the Cardinals was due largely to the sensational shooting of Sophomore "Doc" Heinze who swished the net for 17 points. Bays, playing one of the best defensive games of his career, held Louisville's star forward Epley to 14 points.

Three days after the victory over Louisville, Morehead came to town, cocky and undefeated. Before five minutes of playing time had elapsed the Eagles began to realize that they were pitted against one of the fightin'est teams the mountains had ever produced. With Bays controlling both backboards, and Baker, Armstrong and Heinze hitting the bucket with amazing regularity, the Big Blue team ended the regular game time in a dead heat with the Eagles. In the overtime period Heinze tied the game up with a field goal after Morehead had forged ahead and then dropped in a long looping shot from the corner to win the ball game 61-59. Armstrong and Heinze were high with 14 points each.

After these two surprise victories the Mountaineers were unable to break into the win column until the K.I.A.C. tournament. In the second round they defeated Center 33-30 and in the third round lost to a superior Western team 53-34.

Bays, Moore and Kirby will graduate from the team, but they leave behind a quintet of Sophomores who will give the Alumni a real battle next Thanksgiving.

Fresh games cancelled except for 36-35 win over Eastern

Swimmers have good season — win four out of six meets

Beginning practice a little earlier than usual netted the Berea tankmen the best season in five years of intercollegiate competition. Of six meets, the Berea team came out on top in four.

On a trip into the South they defeated Maryville 42-33 and lost to Tusculum 32-43. In the Seabury pool they again lost to Tusculum 33-41 and won from the unfortunate Maryville team 46-29. In a triangular intramural meet the Varsity compiled 40 points, Secondary 36, and the Foundation 21. In the final meet Berea scored 51 points to defeat Morehead and win the K.I.A.C. title.

During the entire season Berea massed a total of 254 points to 205 for their opponents. Individual high scorers were Whitaker, 59; Thomas 40½; and Andrews, 37 and one-third.

Swimming for the last time for Berea were: Andrews, Cloyd, Dickerson, Fillmore, Maltby, Robertson, Anderson, and Whitaker.

Everything is tense as Greene gets the tip-off for the Alumni. The Freshmen and Academy tangle in a preliminary game. Between halves of Varsity games the gym instructors put on exhibitions such as this. Prof. Feaver stole the show here as he did a few "difficult" turns on the Trampoline—yes, those are socks he is wearing.

There's nothing like a baseball argument—everyone has his little bit to throw in and there is a grand noise which amounts to—poof! . . . Slim Miller and his perambulating trousers create laughs for the Sophomore social . . . Is that Mr. Beach? The camera doesn't lie.

Winners of last year's K. J. A. C. Crown—a chance to repeat

The 1942 cinder team made its first trip of the season to the University of Cincinnati on April 25. With the effects of the long ride showing heavily they were able to compile only $40\frac{1}{2}$ points to $90\frac{1}{2}$ for U. of C. The four first places were taken by Anderson, pole vault; Gilbert, 220 yd. dash; Hurst, 440 yd. run; and the mile relay team: Mills, Hulburt, Easterly, and Hurst.

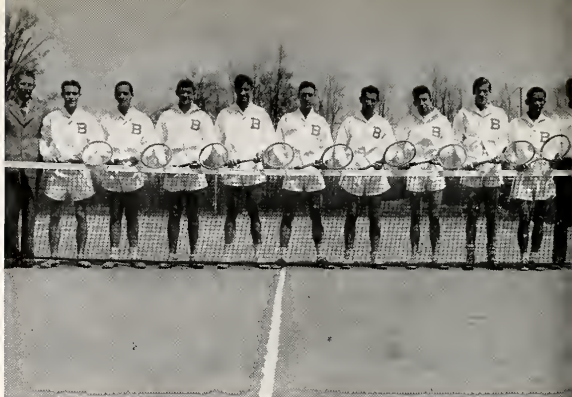

Performing on the cinders in their last season were Hurst, Gilbert, Hulburt, Moore, Anderson, Whitaker, Wall and Easterly. Not only will Berea have a tough time replacing these stalwarts but she will also be faced with the difficult problem of replacing its track coach, Roger Clark.

The tennis team has been unable to grab a victory in three starts this season. They lost two matches to Centre, 7-1, 6-2, and one to the University of Tennessee, 6-1.

Pinafore

Gilbert and Sullivan always allow for brilliant costuming and scenery effects, and this production was no exception. A more picturesque scene would be hard to imagine than the good ship "Pinafore" with hardy sailors, uniformed officers, and gaily-bedecked maidens singing and dancing against the background of the billowy sea.

The Wallpaper

. . . and why shouldn't they? No one ever knew what might appear in the next issue, and from the sound of some of it, neither did Editor Carrington. And of course if the editorial didn't have something surprising in it, "Spots O' Grease" sometimes got off a good joke . . . even if it was a little battered and misused, but Vanderheide had a good sense of humor. "Tampa's" column, when it appeared, gave the latest score of the World Series game or a play-by-play description of battles on the hardwood.

But even with this competent staff the editor had his troubles, which forced him to retire from active duty in favor of a rest. Even today he can show you grey hairs that aren't peroxidized.

The Twenty Writers Club have accepted the responsibility of publishing the Wallpaper for the remainder of the year. Still they say the editors have their troubles.

Saving For National Victory

- CORRODEK LINERS do double duty to help conserve our country's resources. When the baker lines his pans with Corrodek liners, he eliminates greasing, saving vital fats and time as well. Each liner becomes an individual container that carries the cake to the consumer, eliminating the packaging tray and again saving both material and time. CORRODEK, TOO, CARRIES ON FOR NATIONAL VICTORY BECAUSE IT SAVES!
- Other Sherman products for baking and packaging include:
- BAKING CUPS: Round, Square, Oblong, in white bake-test stock, or colored glassine.
- FLUTED OR DIE-CUT LINERS: for all sizes of loaf cakes and layer cakes. Special Liners for Angel and fruit cakes as well as for buns, cookies, etc.
- DOUBLE FACED CORRUGATED CAKE PADS AND DISCS in sizes to fit every need.
- PRINTED BANDS AND LABELS in all sizes and shapes, in gummed and grease-proof stock.

Uncle Sam with billions of ready cash is pleading for greater and greater production. Never before has the demand for all these products seemed so great.

To get all the production possible out of poultry and livestock they must be fed scientifically balanced rations milled and blended to do the job. Purina Chows are made just that way.
